

CLAUDIA TUBERTINI
SHORT CURRICULUM VITAE

Academic background

- In 1995, she graduated from the University of Bologna with full marks and honors (110/110 cum laude).
- In 1999, she obtained a PhD in Public Law from the University of Bologna.
- From 2002 to 2014, she was a tenured Full-time Researcher in the field of Administrative Law (IUS/10) at the University of Bologna, Faculty of Law/Department of Legal Sciences.
- From 2009 to 2013, she held teaching modules and substitute teaching positions at the University of Chieti-Pescara, Faculty of Economics/Department of Legal and Social Sciences.
- In 2013, she obtained the National Scientific Qualification as Associate Professor in Administrative Law (Academic field 12/D1).
- From 2014 to 31/07/2025, she was a tenured Full-time Associate Professor in Administrative and Public Law (GIUR/06, formerly IUS/10) at the University of Bologna, Department of Legal Sciences (DSG).
- Since 1/09/2025, she has been a tenured Full-time Associate Professor in Administrative and Public Law (GIUR/06, formerly IUS/10) at the University of Ferrara, Department of Environmental and Prevention Sciences.
- In 2023, she obtained the National Scientific Qualification as Full Professor in Administrative Law (Academic field 12/D1).

Main scientific activity

- She has participated as a member in several research projects of national and international relevance, including PRIN projects (Italian National Research Projects), international projects funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science and Innovation, Jean Monnet projects and networks, and research programs funded by Una Europa and other European institutions (1996–2026).

Membership in scientific associations, centers, and research institutes

- Since 1999: Member of the “Gruppo San Martino” (part of the coordinating committee 2016–2024).
- Since 2005: Member of the Italian-Spanish Association of Administrative Law Professors (AAIS); since 2019, founding member of the Italian section (ASVA).
- Since 2009: Ordinary member of the ASTRID Foundation.
- Since 2014: Member of the extended scientific committee of Urban@it – National Center for Urban Policy Studies.
- Since 2018: Member of the Association “Amici del diritto pubblico”.
- Since 2020: Member of the Research Committee of CESDIRSAN – Interdisciplinary Center for Health Law Studies.
- Since 2020: Member of the “DAV” research group of the Carlo Cattaneo Institute of Studies and Research.
- Since 2021: Member of the Ibero-American Institute of Administrative Law (IIDA).

- Since 2021: Member of the Board of Directors of C.A.F.C.A. (Training and Legal Consultancy Center), University of Ferrara.

Participation in editorial and scientific committees of journals and book series

- 2001–2003: Editorial staff member of Aedon – Rivista di arti e diritto on line (Il Mulino).
- 2002–present: Editorial staff member, and since 2012 scientific committee member, of Istituzioni del federalismo (Maggioli, later Rubbettino) – ranked “Class A” journal by ANVUR (Area 12).
- 2012–present: Member of the scientific committee of Sanità pubblica e privata (Maggioli).
- Since 2015: Member of the scientific committee of Revista Galega de Administración Pública (REGAP).
- Since 2015: Member of the scientific committee of the book series Regulación de las entidades del sector público (Andavira Editora, Santiago de Compostela, Spain).
- 2019–2023: Member of the scientific committee of Revista de Derecho Público: Teoría y Método.
- Since 2020: Member of the scientific committee of Regional Studies and Local Development (RSLD), Padova University Press.

Awards and national recognition for scientific activity

- For the publication of the book Pubblica Amministrazione e garanzia dei livelli essenziali delle prestazioni. Il caso della tutela della salute (2008), she received funding from the University of Bologna reserved for monographic works of significant scientific interest.
- In 2017, she was among the associate professors selected based on scientific productivity indices to receive FFABR funding (Basic Research Fund) from the Italian Ministry of University and Research – ANVUR.

Main teaching activity

- Holder of teaching modules and courses in Administrative Law (IUS/10) at undergraduate and master’s degree programs in Law, Political Science, and Communication at the University of Bologna: Administrative Law; Administrative Procedural Law; Local Authorities Law; Regional and Local Authorities Law; Law of Local Authorities and Shared Administration; Information and Communication Law.
- Lecturer in master’s programs and specialization schools at the University of Bologna: Regional and Local Authorities Law (SPISA, 2011–present); Health Administrative Law (2006–2021, Master in Health Law).
- Lecturer in Public Law (IUS/09) at the University of Bologna (Tourism Economics) and the University of Chieti-Pescara (Legal Services for Business).
- 2016–2025: Tutor and faculty member of the Collegio Superiore (University of Bologna), where she held seminars on Health Administrative Law.