

Enrico Maestri, Ph.D. in Human Rights, Associate Professor of Legal Philosophy (IUS/20) at Department of Law, University of Ferrara (Italy).

Current holder of the academic courses of «Legal Theory» and «Methodology and Legal Logic» at Department of Law, University of Ferrara.

From 2007 to 2012 Contract Professor of Environmental Law at Ferrara University, Faculty of Biological Sciences.

Member of Committee Board of “Ars Interpretandi” and of “Rivista di filosofia del diritto” (Journal of Legal Philosophy),

Member of IFT (International forum of Teachers) at Unesco Chair Unity in Bioethics, and Member of OBA (Authority of Animal Wellbeing) at University of Ferrara.

Main research topics: bioethics and biolaw, human rights, law and science, law and technology.

Visiting experiences:

2014 – Guest Researcher at Institute Advanced Legal Studies (IALS), University College of London (UCL);

2013 – Visiting Scholar at Faculty of Law, Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (Fau), Germany;

2012 – Guest Researcher at Institute Advanced Legal Studies (IALS), University College of London (UCL);

2011 – Visiting Scholar at German Reference Centre for Ethics in the Life Sciences (DRZE) of the University of Bonn (Germany).

2011 – Visiting Scholar at Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights, at Lund University (Sweden).

2008 – Visiting Scholar at Department of Medical Ethics, Lund University (Sweden).