Salvatore Madonna – Short Curriculum Vitae

Salvatore Madonna graduated in Business Economics from the University of Pisa in 1995 and obtained his PhD from the Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies in Pisa in 1998. In 2000, he qualified for a university researcher position at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Pisa. He was Associate Professor at the University of Ferrara from 2002 until November 2006, when he became Full Professor.

His main research interests include financial statement analysis, corporate performance measurement, value creation and business valuation, corporate reporting, human capital, corporate crises, and management of tourism and hospitality businesses.

TEACHING

He has taught at the Universities of Pisa, Sassari and Ferrara, covering the following subjects:

- General and Applied Accounting;
- Financial Statement Analysis;
- Financial Accounting, Measurement and Reporting;
- Financial Reporting;
- Financial Accounting and Statement Analysis;
- Accounting for Corporate Transactions;
- Business Valuation;
- Tourism and Hospitality Management.

MAIN INSTITUTIONAL ROLES AND ACTIVITIES

Over the course of his academic career, he has held various institutional and administrative positions, including:

- Coordinator of the Master's Programme in Finance and Management Control at the University of Pisa.
- Area Coordinator of the Master's Programme in Management and Corporate Reporting at the University of Pisa.
- Deputy Director of the PER.FET Master's Programme at the University of Ferrara.
- Member of the Academic Board of the PhD Programme in Business Economics jointly organised by the Universities of Ferrara, Parma and Pisa.
- Lecturer in postgraduate and professional training programmes.
- Member and Chair of the State Examination Board for admission to the professions of Chartered Accountant, Accounting Expert and Statutory Auditor.
- Member of AIDEA (Italian Academy of Business Economics), SISR (Italian Society of Accounting History) and SIDREA (Italian Society of Accounting and Business Economics Professors).
- Member of the Department Council and the University Committee for Patents and Spin-offs.
- Member of the Board of Directors of the University of Ferrara.
- Member of the Boards of Directors of several University of Ferrara spin-off companies.
- Vice-Rector for General Affairs and Finance.
- Coordinator of the Emilia-Romagna Regional Laboratory on Corporate Crises;
- Rector's Delegate for Inter-University Agreements and Academic Staff Mobility.
- Member of the Scientific Committee of the Emilia-Romagna School of Advanced Professional Training (SAF), established by the regional Orders of Chartered Accountants and Accounting Experts.